OUR BOOK

To J. D. Vollbrecht

For your keen intelligence and boundless energy, for your years of patient service to us all, we gratefully dedicate our 1954 Tom Tom to you.

MR. HANNAH AND MISS O'HARE

MR. HANNAH

At the head of all school affairs is Mr. Hannah, principal of Jefferson and district superintendent. His duties range from making speeches at graduations to purchasing school supplies. He is the director of faculty personnel, and with the Board of Trustees he handles all financial matters.

Because of the rapidly increasing population of Daly City and the surrounding areas, Mr. Hannah is kept busy with school expansion programs. He is now concerned with the building of the new Westmore High School and with Jefferson's present building program.

As Mr. Hannah has many of his duties centered outside of Jefferson itself, he isn't too well known among the students; but all who know him admire him for his friendliness and capability.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees is a group of three men and two women. Those now on the Board are Mrs. Anna Eason, Mrs. Mildred McGeein, Mr. Elio Fontana, Mr. Lyal Ingersoll, and Mr. Raymond Whitney, the newest member of the Board.

Some of the duties of the Board are appropriating money for necessary supplies, planning new buildings, and planning the school's educational program. They also see that the faculty is wisely chosen and maintained.

The policies of the Board are carried out by Mr. Hannah; but the Board is responsible to no one but the voters and acts accordingly, doing what they think best for the school.

JOHN MONGAN

MR. MONGAN

This amiable member of the administrative group can usually be found in the main office before and after school, issuing absence slips and performing the many other duties required of a vice-principal.

Mr. Mongan's chief duty is to handle that delicate matter of student, parent, and teacher relations. He takes charge of most diciplinary actions and handles matters concerning absences and illness among students. He also acts as an advisor for the Sergeant-at-Arms group.

Though the pride of some students is injured by his reprimands on unruly behavior, he is respected by most of the students for his keen sense of humor and his patience.

COUNSELORS

Those on Jefferson's counseling staff are chosen for their patience with and understanding of students, as their main duty is student advising. Other functions of less importance are obtaining part-time work for students and helping new students become orientated.

The members of this staff are Mr. South, Dean of Boys; Miss Wood, Dean of Girls; and Miss Moldrup, Assistant Dean of Girls. Miss Moldrup is also an algebra teacher.

As the members of this staff deal almost constantly with student problems, they are acquainted with nearly all of the student body, and the evidence of their counseling is often found in the lives of Jefferson graduates.

Mr. Behm, Mr. Lair, Mr. Runnells, Mr. Moseley, Mr. Vollbrecht.

Mr. Pokrywka, Mr. O'Brien, Mr. Puck, Mr. Filice, Mr. Shaver, Mr. Simon.

Mr. Nissen, Mr. Ivan, Mr. Hinkle, Mr. Parker, Mr. Reese.

Mrs. Frost, Miss Hall, Mr. Redmond, Mr. Kane, Mr. Lassegues, Miss Seidel, Miss Schmidt.

Mr. Rose, Miss Tully, Miss Reandeau, Mrs. Kramer, Miss Bellante.

Mrs. Raab, Miss Erickson, Miss McNaught, Miss Jones, Miss Seaton.

Mr. Kollmann, Mr. Pfeffer, Mr. Slinger, Mr. Miguel.

Mrs. Ebert, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Brent, Mrs. Anenson, Miss Berthelson, Miss Ratto.

Mr. Orlich, Mr. Van Alstyne, Mr. McGrath, Mr. Giammona, Mr. Ribera, Mr. Martin.

At Jefferson we have a democracy within a democracy. At the head of all student activity and school affairs are the Board of Trustees and the administrative staff, but the students are given the privilege of selecting a group of officers among themselves. This group is known as the Executive Board.

This Board is composed of Student Body officers, all class presidents, and all club presidents. Among the duties of the Board are alloting student funds, meeting with other schools to encourage interschool amiability, and forming committees to solve student problems.

The Board meetings are usually held once weekly and are conducted entirely by the members. At the head is the president of the Student Body. The vice-president has in his charge the sales of student body cards; the secretary handles all correspondence, and the treasurer cares for funds.

The Executive Board is advised by Mr. Reese, American Government teacher. He attends meetings, keeps tempers at an even level, and advises the members on correct procedure.

The Board serves both as a means of student government and as a way of encouraging democratic principles among the students and is an integral part of school life at Jefferson.

CLASS OF

The Junior year is the last step before the peak of high school life, the Senior year. This year's class of Juniors promises to be an active Senior class. Though much of the third year of high school is occupied by studies, the class as a whole participated vigorously in many extracurricular activities.

The Junior assembly this year was set in an average American coke bar and featured acts ranging from magic to hulas. Other highlights of the year were the Junior Prom with its "Enchanted Evening" theme, and the class rings which were purchased by many Juniors. All of these activities combined to form an exciting and unforgetable year.

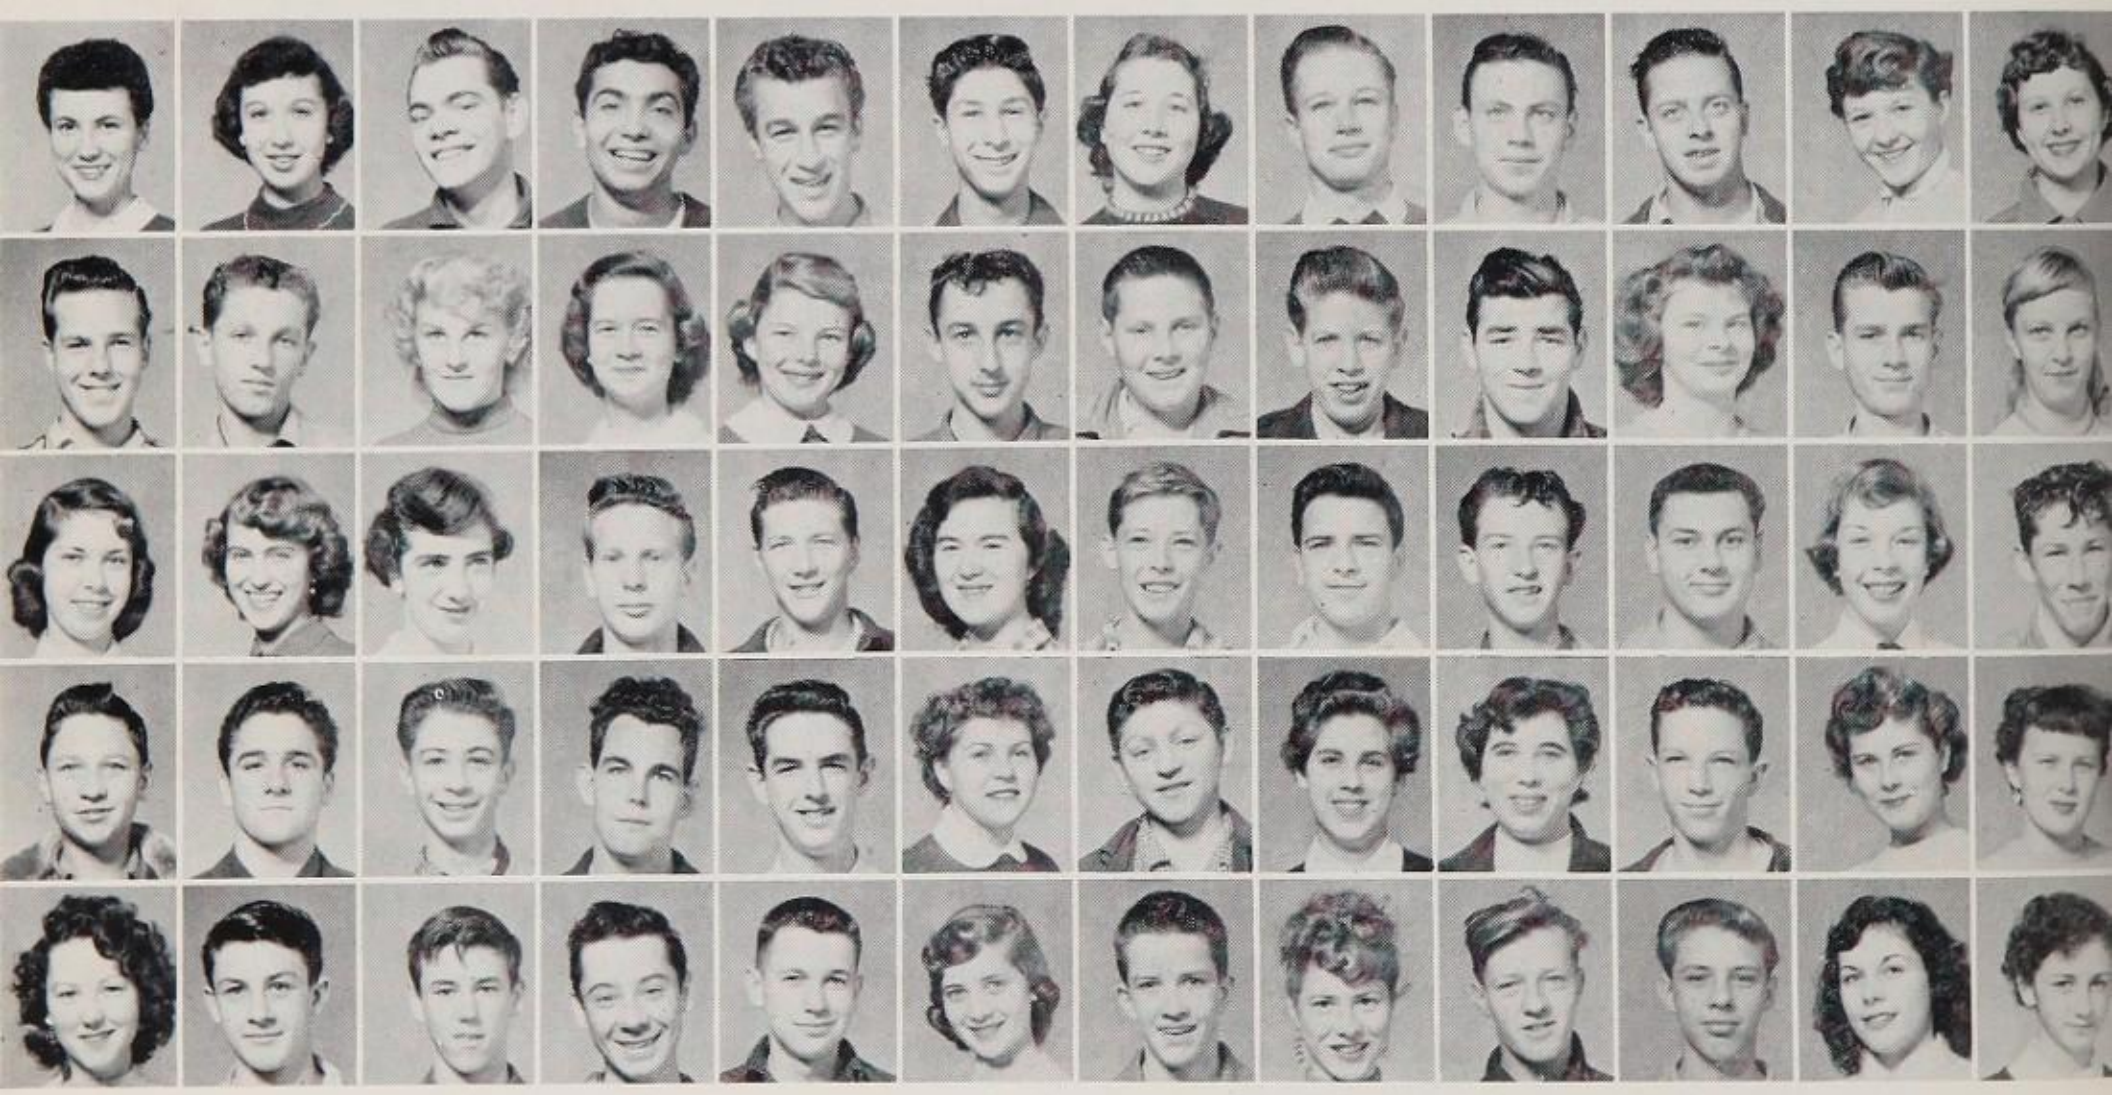
The second year of high school is a period of decision. Up till this time the lives of the students have been directed along the same educational lines; but in this sophomore year of high school, students begin choosing their own courses and laying the groundwork for their future occupation.

Most students fall into one of three classes—academic preparation, business, or general courses. Whichever they choose though, it is most important that they learn to accept responsibility and to realize what lies before them. Once they have passed this first barrier, high school life is less of a chore and more fun.



FIRST ROW, left to right: Marilyn Aiello, Joanne Albera, Robert Alcola, Johnny Alex, Ted Amirkhan, Duane Anderson, Marlene Anglin, Frank Armas, Alan Arneson, George Bacciocco, Jackie Baher, Nadine Baher. This year was something new and exciting to the members of the Class of '57. It was a new year and began for them a new life. Never before had they experienced such late hours dedicated to the great god "Homework."

At first the work set before them seemed endless; but, as the weeks passed, most of them developed study habits and organized their new life.

As the year moved on, they became orientated, joined clubs, attended school affairs, and participated in sports. Out of these timid Freshmen evolved the future upperclassmen of Jefferson.

Spring Head Sergeant-at-Arms

Every once in a great while, our boy Cedric forgets his manners and starts running in the halls, chewing gum in an assembly, or resting his weary bones on that friendly piece of marble, the Senior Bench. Usually immediately afterward, our little friend feels a strong hand clamped around his puny arm. This hand invariably belongs to a member of our police force, the Sergeant-at-Arms Committee. This is a hand-picked group, carefully chosen by the Executive Board with the help of Mr. Mongan. The committee's sole function is the enforcement of the traditions and rules set down by the student body constitution. Mr. Mongan, the advisor of this group, always contributes many helpful suggestions on the effective functioning of this important cog in the student government machine.

OFFICE PRACTICE

Office practice which is taken as a regular subject with credits, provides an outstanding opportunity for business majors to work under actual business conditions in an office. These girls not only provide themselves with a useful background but also make the office more efficient by helping the regular staff in everyday duties.

The girls taking office practice can be seen during almost every period scurrying down the quiet halls collecting absence slips and carrying special announcements to the teachers. If it weren't for the help of these girls taking messages to the classes, Cedric would never come to justice for the times he takes a short leave of absence from classes.

One of the many activities of modern high school life is the school's newspaper. Jefferson's newspaper, the Totem Pole, is the result of tireless effort put forth each week by the journalism and duplication students. The one hour spent in the journalism class does not constitute the only time spent on the writing that appears in the paper. Any morning or afternoon reporters can be seen rushing about completing their assignments.

The expert journalistic advice given by Miss Hall and the assistance of the duplication teacher, Miss Reandeau, combined with the hard work of staff members in their job, present an interesting paper for the students on Friday.

Although many persons signed up for yearbook work in September, only a few persevering souls survived to the very end. Faculty members who deserve credit for their tenacity are Mr. Nissen, who spent countless hours of his time working on the book; Mr. Behm, who worried and worked as financial advisor; and Miss Schmidt, who did all proofreading.

There were quite a few students who helped on the book, but only a few belonged to the "After School and On Saturdays Workers' Club." Some of those who worked faithfully through deadline after deadline were Mary Jane Schuler, Wayne Flansburg, Wayne Webb, and Floyd Kvamme.

Co-editors of the Tom Tom this year were Frances Evans and Ron Casentini.

Once Cedric got an "A" in his English class. At first he was understandably stunned, but after the pink haze lifted he made a magnanimous statement. "I think I'll join the C.S.F. tomorrow," said he.

This utterance is a perfect example of what the California Scholarship Federation stands for in the minds of nearly all Jefferson students. This organization is composed of the very hardest working students. In order to gain admittance a pupil must get three "A's" and a "B," or better, on his semester report. For the benefit of doubters, this is not the easiest task in the world.

By obtaining high marks the C.S.F. member builds a solid foundation for his future, in whatever field he may choose. This type of endeavor also builds character and develops a great sense of responsibility.

The C.S.F. is today as it should be—the ultimate goal of all hard-working Jefferson students.

California Scholarship Federation

Business Honor Society

This group is made up of those business students who have maintained a B average in business subjects and a B average in all other subjects. The membership is small but select, as the business courses at Jefferson are quite difficult. The advantage of offering hard business subjects is that upon graduation many of the business majors are adequately prepared for a career without further education.

The club is advised by Mr. Hinkle, who teaches many of the business courses; and the meetings are held once monthly. The Society was chartered last Spring and shows signs of developing into an honor group with prestige equal to that of the C.S.F.

One of the most coveted awards for Cedric and his athletic male associates is Jefferson's sports award, the Block J. Those boys who participate in certain sports for the amount of time required in the student body constitution are presented their blocks at the annual Fathers and Sons Banquet.

As sports, athletic awards and, of course, the ever-present block sweaters are a vital part of high school life, this organization has much prestige around Jefferson.

The civic-minded individuals here at Jefferson find an outlet for their political views in one of our newer organizations, the Junior Statesmen.

This year some of the members descended en masse on Daly City to become officials for a day. In the course of the day, Mr. Mongan was arrested on dubious charges, much to the delight of some of the students. Because of important business, Mr. Mongan was unable to serve the sentence, which consisted of luncheon with the merry group of Junior Statesmen.

BEST FOOT FORWARD

The first play of the school year, "Best Foot Forward," came and went in a flurry of well-worn scripts, make-up, costumes, and last minute nerves. Despite the many obstacles presented in putting on a high school production, Miss Seaton and the cast succeeded in amusing and impressing the audience with their performance of the story of Prom day in a boys' school. The students are now looking forward to the coming production.

This play typified a new sort of production introduced to Jefferson last year. This type was presentation of plays in the round. The play took place in the center of the auditorium with the audience seated around the seat.

HENRIETTA VIII

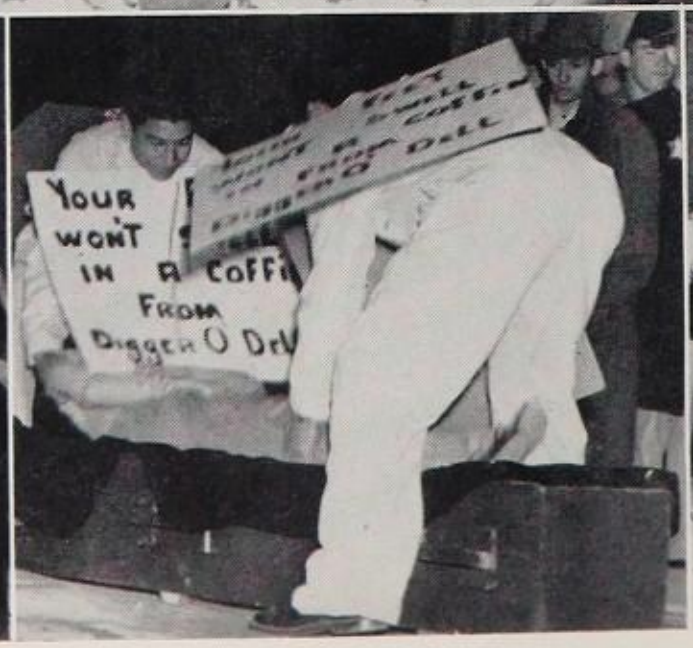
The second play of the school year, "Henrietta VIII," was based on a story about an author posing as a secretary in order to secure material for a book. Although there was quite a rain storm raging on the night of the play's only performance, many students.

Miss Seaton and her cast have proved their skill at light comedy in the two presentations this year, "Best Foot Forward" and "Henrietta VIII," and they are to be complimented on very professional performances. The casts of both plays spent many hours after school practicing their parts and working on sets and costumes. This effort was well-expended, for the plays were a success with the Student Body.

CAMPUS

The students of Jefferson High this year enjoyed a wealth of extra-curricular activities. In addition to the usual athletic events, there were cake and pastry bakes, dances, plays, assemblies, and many others.

One of the funniest shows staged was the "Dragnet" presentation in the Senior assembly. The two school plays, both comedies, received much acclaim from the students, showing the interest of the student body in light comedy. Another humorous spot among the assemblies was the skit in the Sophomore assembly.



ACTIVITIES

Naturally the dances were highlights in the school year, but they received very little student support, and for that reason they might be discontinued. The two dances which are always popular, however, are the Junior Prom and the Senior Ball.

The Seniors, with their many activities, livened up school routine considerably. They had their Senior Sneaks, Balls, and Dress Up Days; and the June graduates put on a dance, "Cupid Capers."

The lack of student support for some activities has lessened the quality of them and has endangered much of what has always been an important part of school life.

The 1953 varsity football eleven, under the able leadership of Coach McGrath and his assistant, Tony Giamonna, performed magnificently on the gridiron, winning seven out of a nine-game schedule.

The only losses came to us from Capuchino, 21-7, in the opening game, and to Lincoln, who went on to win the P.A.L. championship. The Indians' most decisive win was over Galileo, 40-6.

The Indians placed quarterback Ray Rosa, end Jim Minor, and guard Jack Thur on the mythical all P.A.L. team and backs Wally and Jim Honeywell, end Don Delbon, and center John Madden on the honorable mention team.

This year's varsity basketball team under the able coaching of Mike Orlich finished the league season with an eleven win, one loss record. The Indians lost to Capuchino in the first half of the season but came back to take the Mustangs in the second round. The winning of this game forced a playoff between the Indians and Capuchino for the northern division crown. After a hard fought game the Indians finally succumbed to the powerful Mustangs.

The Indians were paced by high scoring forward, Don Delbon, who was named the outstanding player in the P.A.L., Ray Rosa, Tom Costello, John Madden, and Wally Honeywell rounded out the rest of the team's lineup.

DON DELBON
Captain

After last year's rebuilding Coach Lou Martin's varsity baseball team seems to be set to go all the way. The starting lineup is composed of six Seniors and three Juniors. The Indians boast plenty of experience with six returning lettermen from last year's squad and several from the Frosh-Soph.

Don Delbon and Lowell Creighton will handle the pitching chores while all P.A.L. shortstop, Ray Rosa, will cover his position better than ever. The Indians should have a very successful year if everyone plays up to his potential.

TRACK

COACH RIBERA

This year's varsity track team was paced by several top P.A.L. runners and weightmen who turned in some of this season's best records for the peninsula. The 27 members of the Varsity together proved to be one of the top forces in the P.A.L by turning in the record of only one defeat with the rest of the meets being won by overwhelming points.

VARSITY

The thirties contained many stars in both field and track which made them one of the outstanding teams in the P.A.L. The thinclads were leaders in many events particularly in running, but in the team were also included spectacular shotputters and highjumpers. Surely next year's Varsity will be greatly enriched by many of this year's thirties.

and FIELD

Although there weren't many in the twenties division, everyone on the team performed at their best, which was excellent. Two of the twenties' star runners should be acclaimed for the sensational way in which they both performed in all the meets. Coach Ribera should be commended for his patience and effort with all the divisions of the track team.

CROSS-COUNTRY

For the first time in the history of Jefferson, our school has a cross-country team. Though this team was newly started this year, the eight members of this team turned up a remarkable record under the expert coaching of Mr. Simon.

COACH MARTIN

The Frosh-Soph football team under the supervision of head coach Ernie Ribera and assistant coach Lou Martin started the season with bright hopes, only later to be disheartened by dropping the first four games. Discouraged, but with high spirit, the team led the Gridiron for the rest of the season by beating the three top teams, Capuchino (6-0), Menlo Atherton (13-0), and South City (20-14).

Although the team had only two Freshmen on the top 11, they are expected to do well next year; and this year's veterans are sure to be heard of on next season's Varsity.

FROSH-SOPH BASEBALL

COACH VAN ALSTYNE

The first day of practice Coach Van Alstyne was both happy and befuddled to see eighty-four boys turn out for baseball. He knew that the very best sixteen had to be carefully chosen from the great number which had turned out. Out of those picked only two claimed experience on last year's team. They were 3rd baseman, Ray Vuille-mainroy, and pitcher, Jim Honeywell, who were two standouts throughout the year.

Jefferson can well be proud of the players who represented her in a true sportsmanlike attitude both at home and away. Special credit should be given to Coach Van Alstyne whose first attempt at baseball coaching really paid off.

BASKETBALL

This year's thirties team has one of the best records ever compiled by winning nine games and only losing three in league competition. Two of their losses were at the hands of Capuchino, who went on to win the crown. The games were close though and could have gone either way. Because of his wonderful work throughout the season, Al Lagomarsino was chosen one of the All-P.A.L. guards.

The twenties went through a rough twelve game schedule winning ten and only losing two to take the Northern division of the P.A.L. The Indians then went into a playoff series with Menlo-Atherton, southern division winner, to whom Jeff lost the first game of the playoffs. But they came rallying back in the second game and took it by a score of 28-25. In the third, decisive game the Indians came through again with a 36-27 win in a thrilling battle to make them P.A.L. champs.

"P.A.L. CHAMPS"

The tens led by their new coach, Byron Van Alstyne, came through with a very good record by winning eight and losing four. The team lost two close games to Capuchino, winner of the N.P.A.L. Senior forward, Lee Poston, was the individual star of the year, making the first string All-P.A.L.

VARSITY

Under the expert coaching of Mr. John Ivan the 1954 swimming team was worked into first class condition. The Varsity composed of many of last year's veterans swam its way through a successful season. With the welcome assistance of several newcomers to this division, the Varsity displayed itself very well in P.A.L. competition.

The 130's also had an excellent season showing their superior might against such teams as Burlingame and San Mateo. Looking especially well in this division was the 75 yard medley relay, made up of Bob Galindo, Bob Saunders, and Dick Rasor. These boys set a new school record that will be hard to break.

The 120's comprised mainly of Freshmen, showed very good progress throughout the season. Hard work and good coaching will turn these young mermen into future greats. All the swimmers in the last two groups mentioned did excellent work, and they showed tremendous possibilities of a great future for Jeff's swimming team.
